HOT V Recap

Wow! Thank you all for a wonderful HOT V Charity Regatta! We couldn't have asked for better weather during this exciting event. Temperatures in the low 80s on Saturday gave way to a slightly cooler Sunday. The winds on Saturday were perfect for three exciting races. The next day, winds were a bit lighter but were still enough to be fun.

There were 10 Wayfarers, four Flying Scots, two Buccaneers, a Boston Whaler Harpoon, a Laser, a Holder 14, a Hobie TI and two of the club's Tanzers. The overall winners were Bart and Janet Streb in their Buccaneer Adrenaline. Second place went to Jim and Linda Heffernan in their Wayfarer Morning Star, and third went to Al Schonborn and Sue Cole in Uncle Al's Wayfarer Shades, aka Glory Days.

Thanks to Jerry Thompson for another outstanding job as PRO for his fifth year! Thanks also to Phil Leonard for organizing the Race Committee (Peter McCumber, Michael Crouch, Wesley Ivins, Jack Davidson, Kim Wise, Mary Krause, Phil Andrews, Phil Leonard, Chris Ford, and new members Greg and Grady Jones) and to Cathy Leonard for all of her help as well as her artistic contributions. Ali Kishbaugh, you are greatly appreciated for your organizational skills and assistance. Thanks also to the Grimsley High School Sailing Club for their help. Linda Marsh took photos all weekend and her time and wonderful photography are much appreciated. Thanks also to Scott Bogue who was the photo boat driver. Thanks to Uncle Al for his great pictures!

A big Thank You to Jack Davidson for donating his Mistral 16 to be raffled. This was new territory for the HOT and it turned out very well in many ways. Lots of tickets were sold but we were still short of the goal. Everyone was anxious to have the raffle drawn on Saturday and with the help of Nancy Torkewitz, who quietly bought the remaining raffle tickets in Elizabeth Plageman's name, we made it! Nancy really wanted to see Elizabeth win and her generosity is amazing! A heartfelt thanks to all, and especially Nancy, for making the raffle a wonderful and happy event. (Elizabeth and her family took Elizabeth's new boat out on the lake for the first time on the Saturday following the regatta.)

Please support the businesses who generously supported HOT V. They are: EW Process (Phil Leonard's employer), Adventure Lion (Dry Bags), Costco, Havana Phil's Cigar Company (go see his place!), The Fresh Market, All Pets Considered, Balance Day Spa, Oreck, The Biltmore Estate, Annapolis Performance Sailing, Big Burger Spot (great burgers!), Chick-Fil-A, Jared, Little Caesar's Pizza, Jet's Pizza, Mind/Body/Fitness Yoga, Planet Fitness, Artisan Art and Framing (beautiful photo of Figure 8 Island), Matt Stalnaker (guitar lessons which garnered lots of bids!), Carol Moates (two beautiful watercolor paintings), Becky Clodfelter (a wonderful water color painting, framed), InfoLink (John Kuzmier, who insisted his donation must buy "good" beer!), Triad Paw Prints (T-shirts), US Sailing, Total Wine, R. H. Barringer (beer), Natty Greene's, Texas Road House (peanuts, salad and bread), Stamey's BBQ, Golden Corral (baked spaghetti), Lowe's Foods (great fried chicken), Panera, Biscuitville, John Hemphill (three nights at his mountain chalet), Mediterraneo Restaurant, Porter House Restaurant, Country Kitchen Restaurant, Balance Day Spa, Sonny's BBQ, Jared and last but not least, Little River Crafts (Eric Rasmussen). I hope no one was overlooked. These companies and several of our members gave so generously and everyone is much appreciated.

The final amount we raised for Earlier.org is not available yet, but as of this writing we are short of our goal. Please help us get closer to our goal of $10,000 by making a contribution to HOT V at earlier.org. We also have some awesome HOT V t-shirts available for $20.

Interclub with OHSC

Nov. 12, 2016

For those of you that cleaned the gutters instead of sailing yesterday: It was a beautiful day to sail.

A beautiful day, the trees were splendid in their fall colors. Just enough wind. A lot of great competition. There were 26 boats on the water, 17 from OHSC and 9 from LTYC. And fun race courses. The race committee utilized the lake and the winds to the best advantage. It was all great fun, followed by a gathering of sailors for a great post racing social.

Many of the members of these clubs are members at both clubs, and why not take advantage of opportunities to sail and gather with other sailors? Several of these dual members were competing on OHSC's team. It was a valiant battle, but LTYC did, in the end, win the day.

Among the representation from LTYC were two Juniors: Luke Hayes, who did a splendid job in Laser match racing against Phil Andrews and with Trish, sailing on her Wayfarer along with JC Aller, was Jack Clodfelter, one of her students from the Jr. Sailing classes of last summer. We are looking forward to seeing him out more.

Thank you to all of those that came out. It was great to see you all.

Thank you Oak Hollow for hosting this, for the great social and for the great RC.

Nancy Collins

Let's go sailing!
